Student Union Memorial Center

Welcome and Presentation of Awards

Elliott Cheu

Interim Dean

Keynote Speaker

Jamie Edgin

Associate Professor of Psychology

Co-Director in the Cognition and Neural Systems Program

Dr. Edgin is an Associate Professor and Co-Director in the Cognition and Neural Systems Program in the Department of Psychology. She also has departmental and GIDP affiliations in Family Studies and Human Development, the Frances McClelland Institute, the School of Education, the Sonoran University Center for Excellence in Developmental Disability, and the Cognitive Science Program. Her area of expertise is memory development and sleep in typical and atypical development, including work with individuals with Down syndrome and autism. For her work coupling research and outreach with these populations, she received the Henry and Phyllis Koffler Prize for Community Outreach in 2018.

Student Speaker

Mauricio Serna Jr.

Psychology

Academic Year Distinction

Mauricio is a senior pursuing a B.S. in Psychological Science. Currently, Mauricio is a peer mentor for Arizona Science, Engineering and Math Scholars Program and is an undergraduate research assistant in Dr. Andrews-Hanna's Neuroscience of Emotion and Thought (NET) lab, where he studies ruminative thoughts in conjunction with goal-oriented thoughts and co-rumination in romantic couples. He is set to graduate this upcoming Spring semester and plans on attending graduate school to obtain a Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology under the clinical-scientist model.
