

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

College of Science

SCIENCE CAFÉ

Spring 2020 Series

Meet University of Arizona scientists doing cutting-edge research in a casual setting

Get to know the people behind the science. Ask questions and join the discussion that impacts our everyday lives.

Thank you to our strong community partners, who allow us to bring this rich programming to the community.

Free to the public

The University of Arizona Science Café Series brings the community together with University scientists and graduate students at four venues around Tucson.

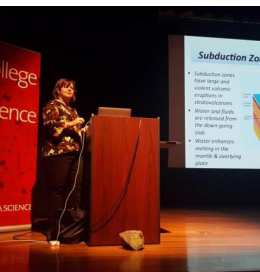

Borderlands Brewing

The Frontlines in our Future

The second Thursday of the month at 6:00 PM
1/9/20, 2/13/20, 3/19/20*, 4/9/20

Borderlands Brewing, 119 E. Toole Ave.,
Tucson, AZ

Occurs on the third Thursday of March*

SaddleBrooke Science Café

Human Disease: Pathways to Cures

The second Thursday of the month at 6:30 PM
1/9/20, 2/13/20, 3/19/20*

Desert View Performing Arts Center, 39900
S. Clubhouse Drive, Tucson, AZ

Occurs on the third Thursday of March*

Downtown Science Café

From Science to Stewardship: Earth Science In Action

The third Tuesday of the month at 6:00 PM
1/21/20, 2/20/20*, 3/17/20, 4/21/20

Magpies Gourmet Pizza 4th Ave., 605 N.
4th Ave., Tucson, AZ

Occurs on the fourth Thursday of February*

Science Café @ the Garden

Vital Signs: Diagnosis for the Future of Tropical Rainforests

The first Thursday of the month at 6:00 PM
2/6/20, 3/5/20, 4/2/20, 5/7/20

Tucson Botanical Gardens, 2150 N Alvernon
Way, Tucson, AZ

Series special offer! Guests of the Science Cafe are invited to stroll the gardens after the talk, courtesy of the Tucson Botanical Gardens

Join Us Live or On Demand at: bit.ly/UASciCafe

You can also find more information and sign up for our newsletter to receive announcements.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

College of Science